

Lisa Harris

Vice President

Masters Degree in Business, from Duquesne University and a Masters Degree in Education from Trident University.

More than 15 years working with youth in a variety of capacities from Program Development, Adolescent Health Education to Teacher. As a native of Central Pennsylvania, Lisa is a Veteran and real estate developer, who has a concentrated interest in encouraging youth to develop skills that will enable them to use both their hands and minds; to become lifelong learners and investors in themselves and in their communities.

Bachelor's Degree from Shippensburg University in Communications
Currently a Doctoral Student, studying Education and Health.